FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kevin M. Busch Awarded Civilian Award of Commendation by Metro Transit Police

Minneapolis, MN (June 19, 2014) – Moss & Barnett, A Professional Association, is pleased to congratulate Kevin M. Busch who was awarded a Civilian Award of Commendation by the Metro Transit Police on June 5, 2014. The award was presented by Metro Transit Police Chief John M. Harrington.

On the evening of June 18, 2013, while on his way home from work, Kevin came to the aid of a young female victim who was being violently beaten by a group of assailants. As Kevin approached, the assailants fled while Kevin came to the aid of the victim and called 911. Officers arrived on the scene and were able to apprehend several of the suspects involved. Officer Andrew Schroeder was awarded an Award of Merit for the same incident for apprehending the last of the suspects on June 22, 2013. As Metro Transit Police Chief John M. Harrington notes in his commendation, “It is the collective effort of honest citizens and Officers on or off duty, being in the right place at the right time that provides safety and justice for our community.”

Kevin serves as the firm's Chief Operating Officer, is chair of the firm's banking and commercial transactions practice area, and is a member of the firm's business law and mergers, acquisitions, and corporate finance practice areas.
