FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Susan C. Rhode Elected to Mitchell|Hamline School of Law Board of Trustees

Minneapolis, MN (June 22, 2015) – Moss & Barnett, A Professional Association, is pleased to announce that Susan C. Rhode has been elected to the newly formed Mitchell|Hamline School of Law Board of Trustees. Susan is one of 11 leaders from the legal, higher education, and business communities elected by Hamline University School of Law on June 2, 2015, to combine with William Mitchell College of Law's 22 existing board members to constitute the combined law school board. They will begin serving once ABA approval is received for the Hamline and Mitchell combination.

Susan is the Chair of Moss & Barnett's family law team and is renowned for her extensive experience and high ethical standards as a family law attorney. She is the immediate past chairperson of the Minnesota ADR Ethics Board, to which she was appointed by the Minnesota Supreme Court to promote the use of ADR in the court system. Additionally, Susan was appointed in 2010 by the Minnesota Supreme Court to a six-year term as chairperson of the Fourth Judicial District Bar Association's Ethics Committee. Susan also serves as a mediator in the Family Law Appellate Program, to which she was appointed in 2010 by the Minnesota Court of Appeals.

“In addition to now serving as a leader of legal education, Susan has been a long-time leader of the bar, our law firm, and the community – our entire law firm is honored by her efforts,” said Moss & Barnett President and CEO, Tom Shroyer.

About Hamline University School of Law

Hamline’s School of Law is the top-ranked private law school in Minnesota, according to U.S. News & World Report. Hamline University School of Law was founded and received accreditation from the ABA in 1975. Personalized classes, top-ranked professors, and a spirit of collaboration distinguish Hamline University School of Law, where students are challenged to become competent, professional, ethical lawyers with a global perspective.

About William Mitchell College of Law

William Mitchell College of Law was founded in 1900 to provide an accessible, practical legal education through an outcomes-based curriculum rooted in the real-world needs of lawyers, the legal profession, and the community. Today, it is home to one of the top-ranked clinical programs in the nation; robust externship and mentoring programs; faculty who are teachers, scholars, and practitioners; and a large, proud, and supportive alumni base. Accredited in 1943, Mitchell is the only ABA-approved law school to offer three distinct enrollment options: full-time, part-time, and a new on-campus/online hybrid option.
