FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Construction Law Attorney Douglas J. Mac Arthur Joins Moss & Barnett

Minneapolis, MN (March 8, 2018) – Moss & Barnett is pleased to announce that Douglas J. Mac Arthur has joined the firm's litigation team.

Mac Arthur practices primarily in construction law, helping construction industry stakeholders with dispute resolution, litigation, contract drafting, negotiation, and insurance coverage matters. He has a strong background in the construction industry, including a B.S. in Construction Management and almost ten years as a remodeling contractor.

Prior to joining Moss & Barnett, Mac Arthur practiced construction law with a law firm representing and advising general contractors, construction managers, subcontractors, developers, architects, and engineers in transactions and disputes involving residential buildings and developments, commercial projects, and industrial buildings. Prior to that, he worked under the general counsel of a large Minneapolis general contractor where he gained exposure to many legal and business matters. In addition, Mac Arthur served as a judicial extern for Minnesota Fourth Judicial District Court Judges Denise Reilly and Laurie Miller. This prior experience gives Mac Arthur a unique perspective on what is important to a company and its owners.

Mac Arthur received his J.D., magna cum laude, from William Mitchell College of Law and his B.S. in Construction Management from Minnesota State University at Moorhead.

“Doug’s legal expertise and his practical background will greatly enhance our already strong construction law practice area, and we are extremely pleased to have him join us,” said Thomas J. Shroyer, Moss & Barnett’s Chief Executive Officer.
